Presenting

THE LAGNIAPPE

The Year 1940 at Louisiana Tech

A YEARBOOK ISSUED BY THE STUDENTS OF LOUISIANA TECH - RUSTON, LOUISIANA

Dedication

Because we believe the greatest asset of Louisiana Tech to be the atmosphere of friendliness among its students, we dedicate this book to the furtherance of that spirit.

To the Students of Louisiana Tech:

Another year has rolled around. Our enrollment has increased and our friends are more numerous. Your department, in spite of the crowded conditions, continues fine. My hope is that when our building and campus program is completed you will enjoy your stay and work even more.

Those of you who were Freshmen with me in the fall of '36 will soon be leaving the campus to take up your respective professions. I hope that when you graduate in June our close friendship will be an example for those who have come into the college since that time, and also to those who will come later. Let us not forget that colleges are measured by the type of citizens that it makes.

The former editors of the Lagniappe have set high standards for us. I shall expect this one for 1940 to be the best.

Sincerely,

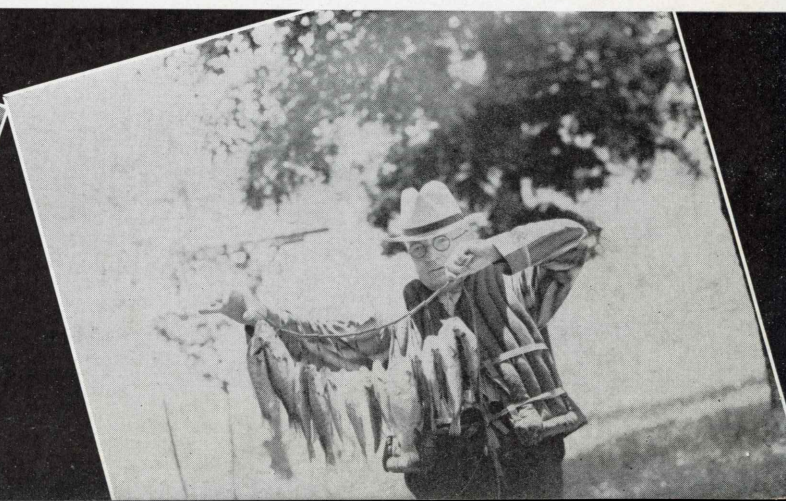

E. S. Richardson

President.

We Work

1. Choice of the cafeteria. 2. "Ha' mercy," says the Deacon. 3. Michelangelo in person! 4. Shifting gears on the jerseys. 5. Surveying the campus? (You can't make a snapshot with that!) 6. Want the waiter with the water? 7. Holding hands, I betcha.

We Love

These pictures were taken the first week in April with the campus in full bloom. Bridal wreath, wisteria, pansies, iris, and red bud were out in profusion. So were the students.

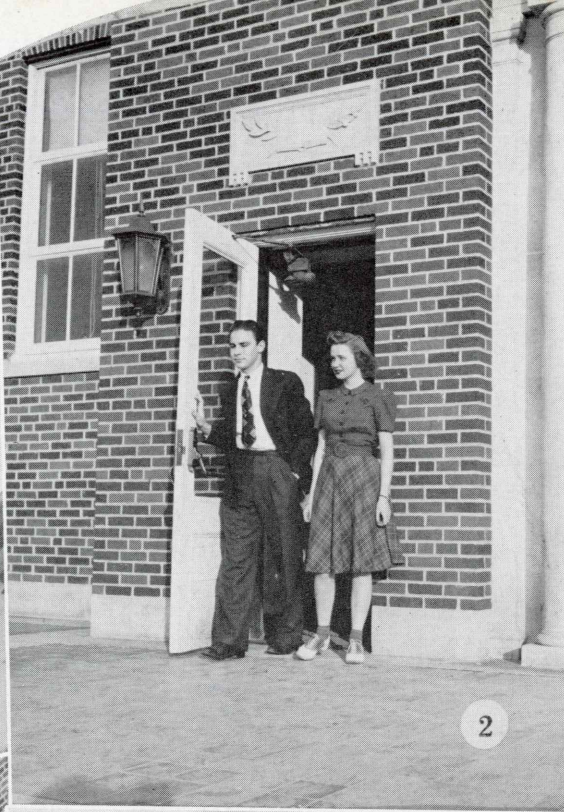

This Place

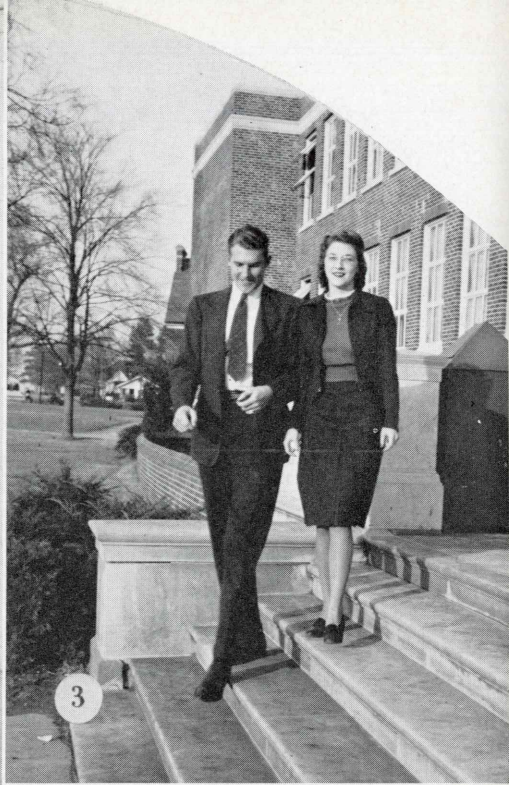

Home, to the girls, is Richardson Hall, the old dormitory. These scenes were taken at the three main entrances to the building, which are hidden by shrubbery.

1. Arey and Haynes loaf.

2. Margaret and Jimmy. Margaret gets a new steady each year.

3. Sibyl and Dodd, campus bigwigs.

4. Kate and Truman hold hands prettily—and constantly. 5. LaVerne and Paul. He is expressing adoration with all his might, but she——

6. John and Mary seem to be a happy couple. 7. Warm hearts for Joe and Fay despite the snow. 8. That smile of Jerry's is not wasted on James Edward. 9. Virginia and John, old faithfuls.

Just Any Day

1. Victory imagines herself to be casting fetching looks at Murry.
2. Ray and La Neil put the green benches to their proper use.
3. Bill tells everyone that he's a remarkable fellow. Almeda believes him. It's love.
4. It's funny to Florence and Gail, and to Lillian, even if Rip didn't quite make it.
5. Just between Mary and Bruce and the flagpole.
6. Shows and Jessie Bell. Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly—etc.
7. Caroline and Phil. When the photographer was photographed.
8. Foster and one of the Brooks twins. Such proximity in the light of day!
9. Nancy and Kid hiding out in the campus hangout.

Who's Who

JOHNIILE CURRY

Poetess-Actress

To many of her classmates at Tech, Johniile was known chiefly as the society editor of The Tech Talk, but she gained recognition in various other fields as well. A member of Phi Theta Kappa, she was editor-in-chief of the Tech Review, a literary magazine; played major roles in dramatic plays as a member of the Tech Theater Players, and wrote very acceptable poetry, some of which has been published in leading national periodicals.

Chosen by a student-faculty committee from juniors and seniors nominated by fellow students for their leadership at La. Tech.

ORA M. MERRIOT

Athlete

Very much in the public's eye was "Ding" Merriot during the football and basketball seasons, but outside the realm of sports he found time to serve as vice-president of the Student Council, and as monitor of the freshman dormitory, and was a member of Los Hispanofilos and the "T" Club. Merriott lettered in both football and basketball.

DODD BROOKS

Student Leader

Known on the campus for his ever-present smile and winning personality, Dodd ranks among the foremost of the campus leaders at Tech. Working as a waiter in the dining hall, he still has time to head the Student Council, sing in the Glee Club, serve on the Intra-mural council and take part in other extra-curricular and religious activities.

AMY SUE FURLOW

Musician

"Short and sweet, hard to beat," is an adequate description of Miss Louisiana Tech, 1939, who classes as her chief hobby, piano playing. Majoring in music, singing in the Glee Club, and playing in the Little Symphony orchestra, Amy Sue, in her spare time, is secretary of the Student Union and the Newman Club, and president of Theta Upsilon sorority.

LAVINIA FOGLE

Executive

As president of Kappa Delta, Lavinia led her sorority to a very successful year. She was chief-assistant in the treasurer's office. Besides these rather full-time duties she served on the Student Council and Student Union, and led the freshmen a merry life as a member of the Freshman Rules Committee. But because she was so helpful as a Senior advisor, the freshmen can well forgive her.

J. W. RABB

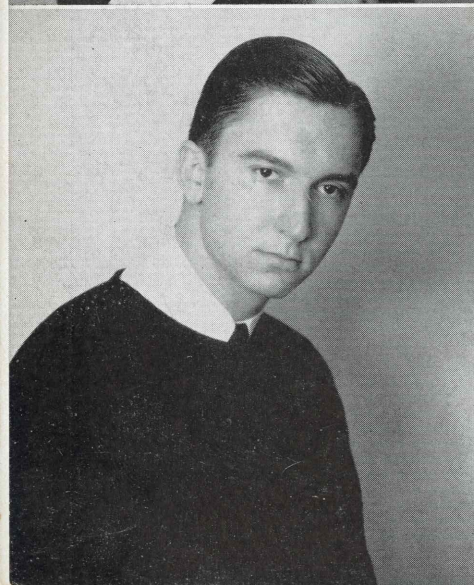

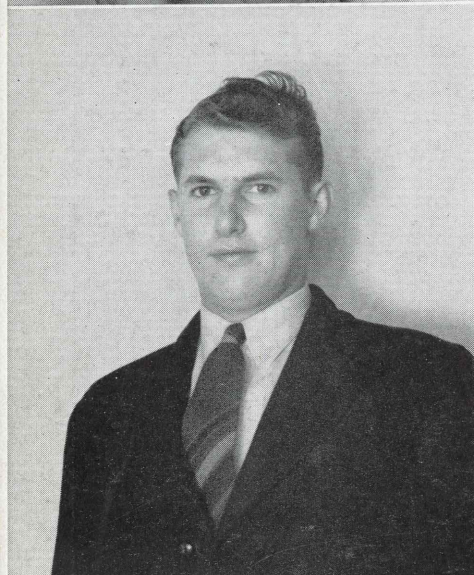

Scholar

No assignment was too tough; no job was too big to tackle for Rabb. Consistency, efficiency and accuracy were second nature to J. W., Delta Alpha Rho member, who held the following offices: Treasurer of Delta Alpha Rho; Sergeant-at-Arms, International Relations Club; Master of Exchequer, Alpha Lambda Tau. Putting his journalistic talent to use, Rabb edited the Tech Engineer.

JONES EDWARD BOOTH

Class Leader

With just enough of the book worm and the right proportion of social tendencies in his mental make-up, Booth is graduating this year with a climaxing honor—that of being president of the senior class. When not busy as a lab assistant Booth found time to take part on the Student Council, Social fund committee and the Alumni Executive committee.

At Tech

The paragraphs below give a partial list of the more outstanding offices and honors of the winners in the annual poll.

JAY PAUL WADE, JR.

Journalist

Serving on The Tech Talk as reporter, columnist, sports editor and student editor-in-chief, versatile J. Paul Wade has written everything from society and personals to sports and editorials or vice versa. Instrumental in organizing the Louisiana Collegiate Press Association, he was elected first president of that organization in the fall of 1939. Other activities include: President of Tech Press Club and Co-Sports editor of the Lagniappe for 1939-40.

SIBYL LOUISE WURSTER

Social Worker

Exceptional in that she had many interests and was successful in all of them is Sibyl Wurster, who was president of Y. W. C. A.; vice-president of the Women's League; treasurer of Honor Council; president of La. Methodist Student Movement; secretary of Freshman Glee Club; secretary of Religious Organizations' Council, and treasurer of the Honor Council.

EMMOGENE MARONEY

Popular

It has repeatedly been said that no Tech dance is quite complete without the presence of Emmogene Maroney. Grace and beauty personified, Em, the sweetheart of Tech, has won a place in the hearts of all who know her. Among her many activities are the following: Girls' Vice-president of Sophomore class; Vice-president, Kappa Delta; Student Council member and Mardi Gras maid.

HAYNES HARKEY

Politician

Pre-law is his curriculum. Politics is his second nature. Haynes was elected to the presidency of the sophomore class and repeated the following year to become president of the junior class. He was president a third time with his election to the top office of the Student Union in 1939. A member of the Student council, Harkey has been an important figure in the campus political picture.

JACK TERRILL

Frat Man

If there's anything going on around Tech it's two to one you'll find "Kid" Terrill right in the middle of it. A radiant personality, blond and stocky Jack Terrill is everybody's friend. "Kid" has centered his interests chiefly around social activities, and in that field has set a "mark to shoot at." Major offices he has held are: Oracle, Theta Kappa Nu, 1937-'38, 1938-'39; President, Lambda Chi Alpha and member of Inter-fraternity council.

MARGARET TEMPLETON

Officer-Actress

Three times a president, once a vice-president and once an associate editor is the enviable record of popular Margaret Templeton. She has held the presidency of the Women's League, Tech Theatre Players, and the Christian Endeavor. This coupled with the Vice-presidency of the Y. W. C. A.; Associate editorship of the Lagniappe for 1938-39 and membership in the Student Council describes the variety and success of her extra-curricular activities.

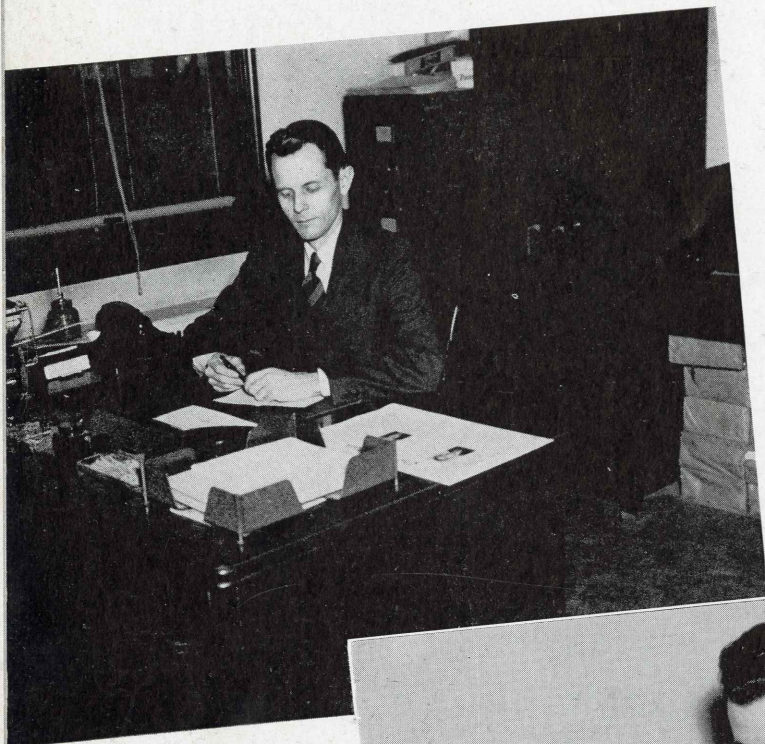

JANE CARROLL

Religious Leader

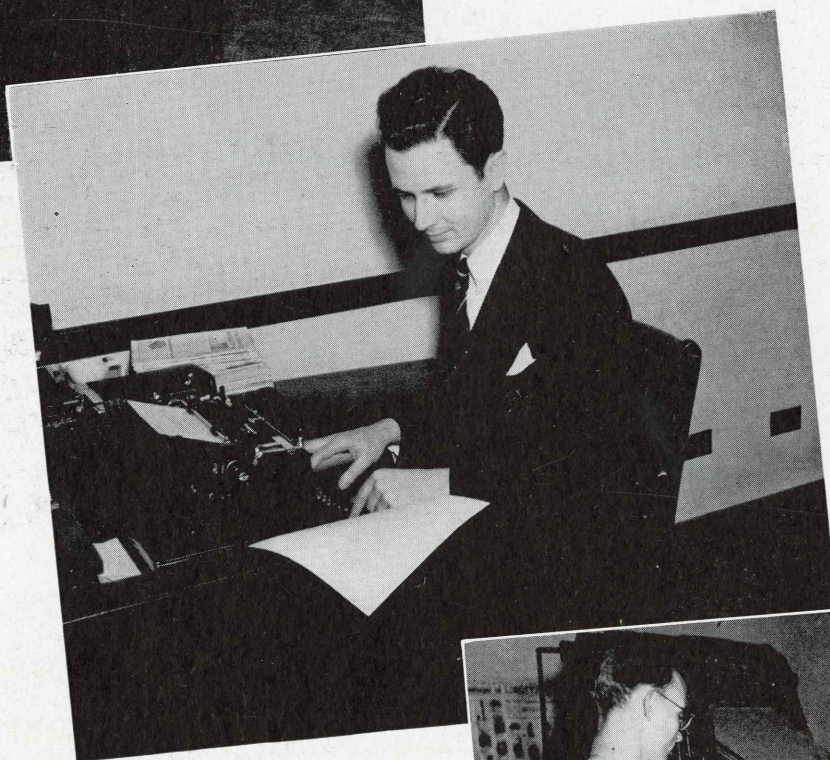

A leader in her every endeavor, Jane has gained the admiration of every one at Tech. With her chief interest in religious work, she has been president of B. S. U., Y. W. A., and religious organization council; Vice-president of State B. S. U.; held offices in Gamma Epsilon, Sigma Tau Delta, and Student Union. Besides winning the Journalism award in 1939, she edited the Lagniappe for 1939-40.

Aillet and Crowley,

Joe Aillet, Editor of The Tech, has been rector and section of coach at Louisville, Ky., as the new line coach and basketball mentor at Tech.

While serving as head coach at Haynesville, Aillet had Crowley as his assistant from 1931 to 1935, inclusive. Then Aillet joined the Normal coaching staff and Crowley became head coach at Haynesville.

At Normal Four Years
Coach Aillet played football at St. Edward's university in Austin, Tex., and later entered Southwestern Louisiana Institute, from which he received the B. A. degree. He obtained the M. A. degree from Louisiana State university. For the last four years he coached the Normal backs and is regarded as a "spark plug" in the production of the all-victorious Demon team during the season just closed.

The new athletic director and head coach was highly recommended to President E. S. Richardson and the Tech athletic committee by friends and alumni of Tech in various parts of the state and also was lauded by officials at Normal. Several of the Tech football players, acquainted with Coach Aillet, said, upon learning of his appointment here, that they were "sure glad to hear that." Coach Aillet has a well established contact with public school leaders in this section, through his previous work with the high school athletic association.

He conceived the idea of fingerprinting Tech students.

Published weekly by Louisiana Tech journalism students, The Tech Talk, official college newspaper, celebrated its thirteenth birthday this year on April 12. It is published in the Tech printing department, one of the most complete plants of any college in the South. Tech also maintains a photography studio and photo - engraving plant, which serve The Tech Talk and other Tech publications.

The newspaper has been consistently given "first class honor rating" by an Associated Collegiate Press critical service and was twice judged "All-American." It is a charter publication of the Louisiana Collegiate Press association, organized December 16, 1939.

Inter-Fraternity Council Approves of Dance-Rate System Here

New Ruling Begins
February 3; Weeks
Of Debate Ended

Beginning with the Inter-fraternity hop February 3, a new dance "rate" system will be put into effect, states Maurice Tatum, president of the Inter-fraternity council. Climaxing several weeks of debate over the new amendment, which will entitle the members of a fraternity sponsoring a dance to invite non-fraternity members, the council met Monday night and voted unanimously in favor of it.

"In the past," stated Tatum, "a fraternity member was assessed for each dance that his organization sponsored and yet could not invite anyone but other Greeks. The new ruling is expected to meet with favor."

All Greek organizations are expected to use the rate system at Inter-fraternity dances.

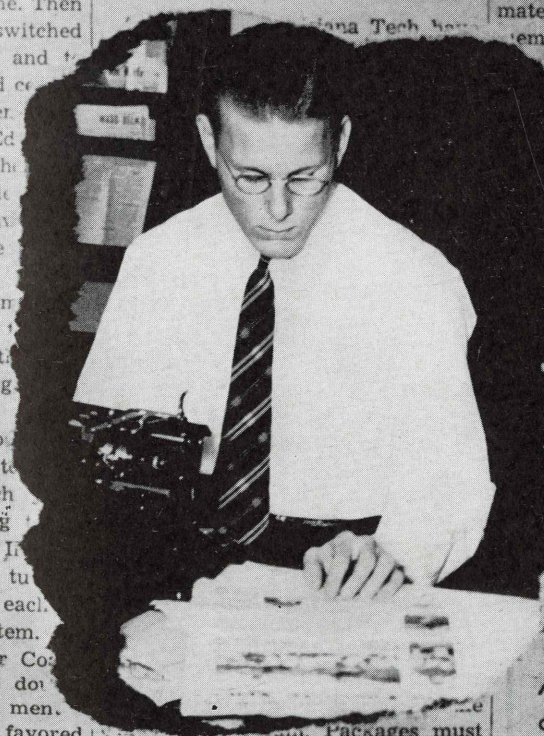

The council also decided Monday night to give the Stray Greeks a non-fraternity

STAFF

L. RUSSELL BURKE - - - - - Student Editor

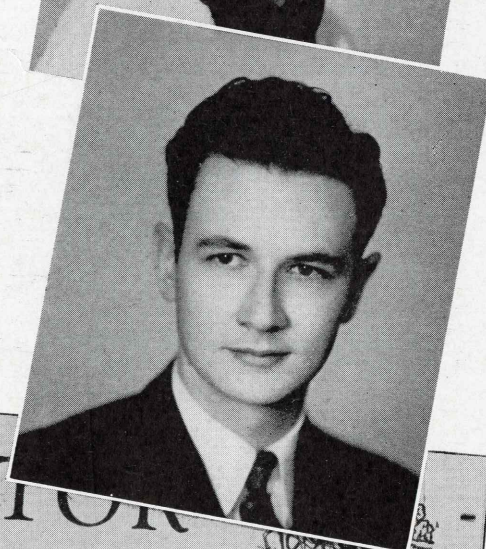

EVELYN HEMLER - - - - - Home Economics Correspondent

L. B. WATT, JR. - - - - - Journalism Faculty Adviser

The Cultivator, published quarterly by the Louisiana Tech Department of Agriculture, is distributed among the 168 agriculture students of the college and mailed to hundreds of high school pupils and farmers in North Louisiana.

The paper reflects the progress of the Department of Agriculture at Tech and keeps abreast of the times in interpreting the new trends in the practical field. Timely topics, discussed by faculty members, appear regularly in addition to news items related to the Louisiana Tech Farm, which has gone through an era of development in keeping with the rapid strides made by the college itself under the recent $2,000,000 building program.

Members of the Demeter Fraternity undertook the publication of the paper in the spring of 1938.

DIGGING BEGINS ON NEW $110,000 FARM BUILDING

Construction Contract To Be Let April 15, Reese Says

Excavation for Louisiana Tech's new $110,000 agriculture building has already begun and the construction contract will be let on April 15, according to R. L. Reese of the agriculture department. The building is to be located on the northwest corner of the Tech farm facing the Shreveport highway. The structure is one of the buildings included in Tech's $2,000,000

Work has already begun on the excavation of the ground on which the new agriculture building at Louisiana Tech will stand. A drawing of the new building is shown above. The structure will be located on the Tech farm, just west of the Tech campus, on the Shreveport highway. The contract for the actual construction of the building will be let July 15, R. L. Reese of the agriculture department announced.

The School of Engineering at Louisiana Tech has a large number of graduates distributed all over the United States and into many foreign countries. This number is being increased every year as more and more young men are sent out from this institution into the engineering profession. As this number increases there is a growing need for a means of bringing all these men with so much in common a little nearer together and keeping them posted on what is going on at their Alma Mater.

The School of Engineering at Louisiana Tech has an enrollment of nearly 450 students. It is hard to keep all of these students posted on the activities of the school and its graduates. The students like to know what the graduates are doing because someday they will be graduates.

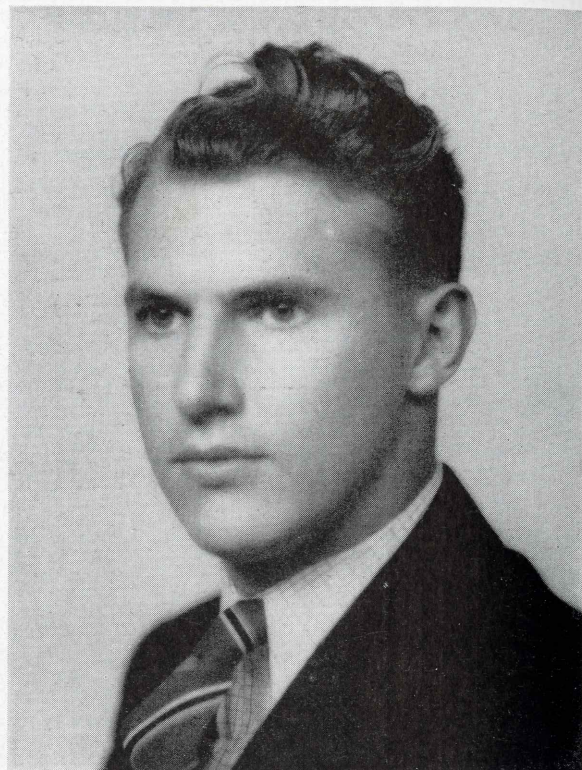

The answer was found and sponsored by the Delta Alpha Rho beginning in September, 1939. Devoted to the advancement of the School of Engineering, its students, and its graduates, the common denominator for them all is presented in the form of a quarterly publication—THE TECH ENGINEER.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

DR. P. K. SMITH
Faculty Advisor

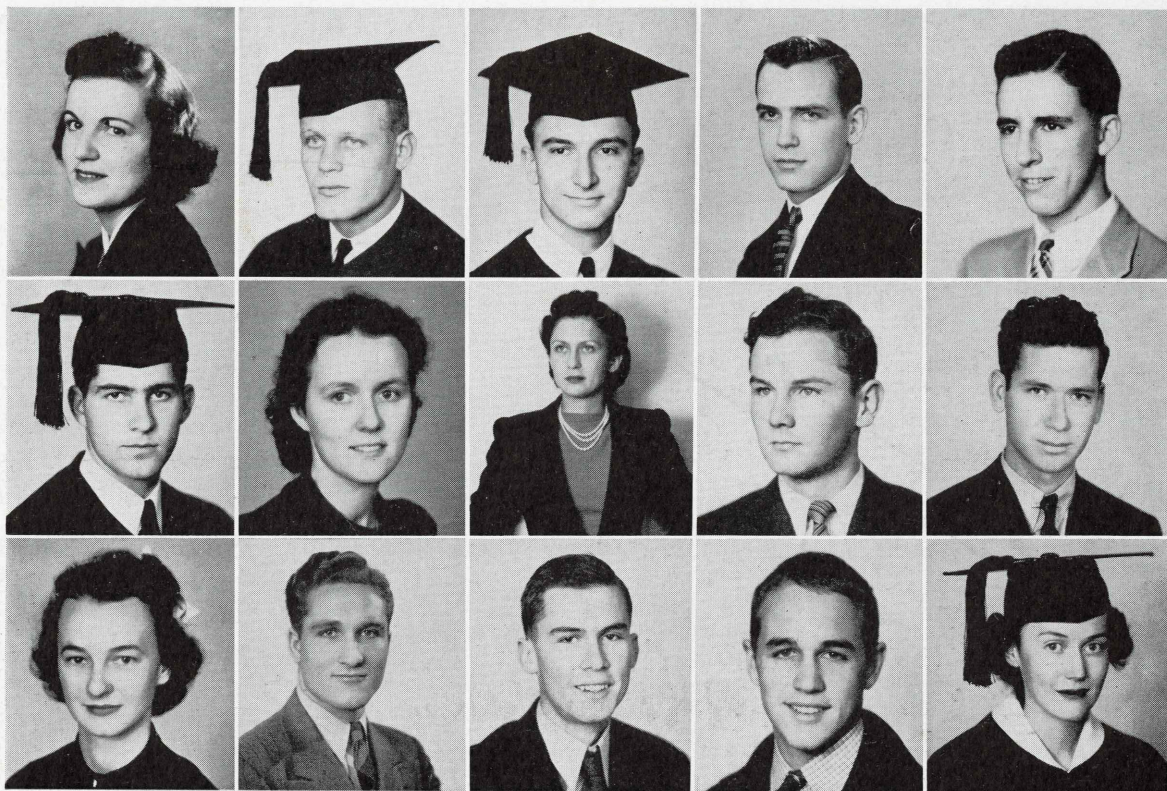

J. DODD BROOKS
President

Featuring in this section the organizations given to student government, the Women's League and the Honor Council, headed by the Student Council.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council, executive organ of the student body association, has this year pledged itself to a policy of self-education, and that of proving to students and faculty alike the advantages of more complete student government. Judging carefully the development of the students and their capacity for accepting the responsibilities of self-government, the Council advanced with firm, concrete steps.

Faculty-Student relationship on a high plane is one of the chief aims of the Council. It is not the desire of the Council to build government in which only the students participate, but one in which faculty and students work together for the common good of all, so that a strong feeling of fellowship may prevail in our college community.

The Theater Players were handicapped this year while the new Fine Arts Building was under construction. However, much good work was done in acting practices and principles. The club, under Miss Paul's guidance, is looking forward to a profitable year in 1941.

Left, a scene from "Our Town," a major production given at the high school. Margaret Templeton and Frank Voelker played the major roles with the entire club giving able supporting roles. Right, a short of a rehearsal with Evelyn McGee, Maurice Ursery and John La Rue.

Athletic Director

Due to a serious automobile accident several years ago, L. P. "Eddie" McLane resigned his post as head football coach of the Bulldog "11" in the spring of 1939 to devote his full time to the office of athletic director and head of the physical education department in which capacity he continued until December when his continued illness made it advisable for him to sever his connections with the Athletic department entirely.

Head Coach

Returning to Louisiana Tech in the spring of 1939 from Howard college, Birmingham, Ala., Ray E. Davis became head coach of the Canines. Soon after spring practice with the footballers, Coach Davis turned his attention to the baseball team, with very little prospects for a successful season. However, his K-9 squad proved to be one of the best in the history of baseball at Tech, winning 19 and losing 5 games, and scoring the amazing total of 291 runs during the campaign, giving the Bulldogs a valid claim to the mythical championship of the S. I. A. A. Following a general shake-up in the coaching staff at the close of the 1939 football season, Coach Davis was relieved of his duties. He is at present connected with the freshman coaching staff at the University of Alabama.

FOREWORD

Lest any accuse us of avoiding the issue, we take this opportunity to state in advance that the record of the Bulldog grid machine during the 1939 campaign left much to be desired. However, despite the loss of more than half of their games, the inexperienced pigskin-toters proved themselves worthy wearers of the Red and Blue.

Considering that there were only four seniors on the squad, and that the greater part of the group was composed of raw sophomores with little or no college experience, the record of the team speaks well for the boys who played the game.

Although the 1939 season was not a success in games won and lost, the sportsmanlike manner in which the team took its losses and the eagerness with which the Bulldogs entered every game won the respect of every Louisiana Tech student.

THE COACHES

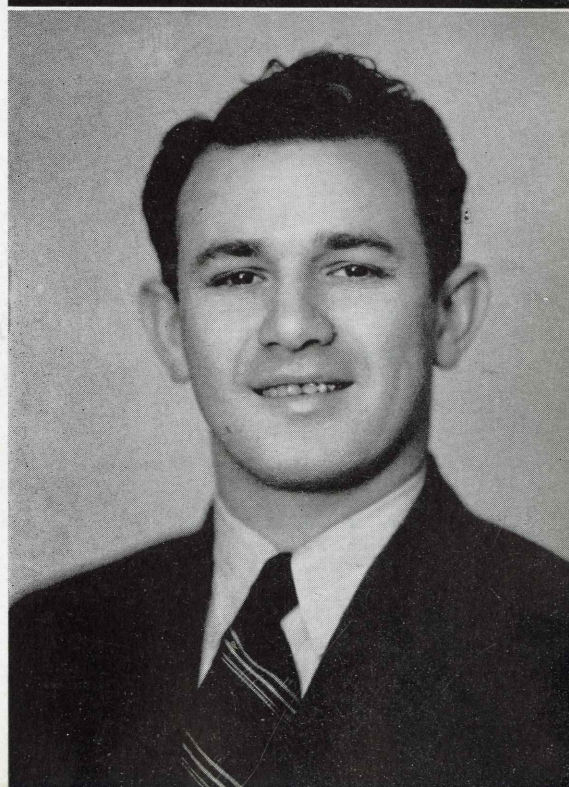

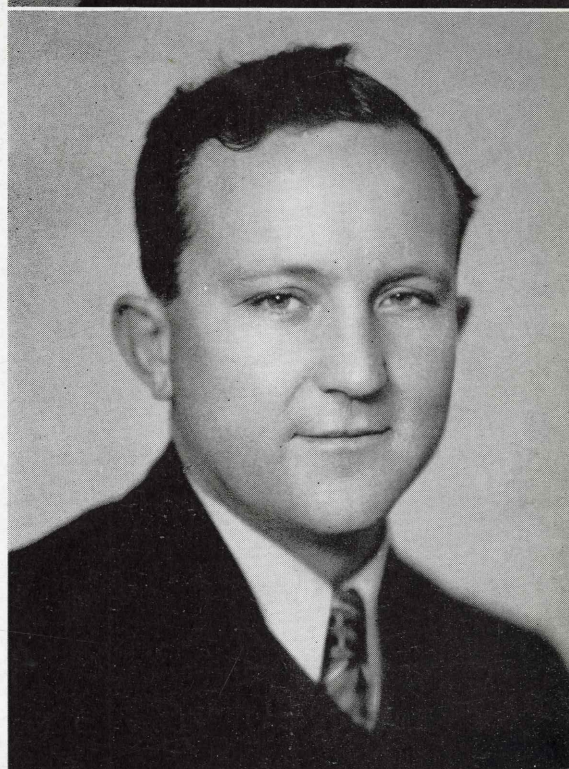

Pictured at the right are the other members of the varsity coaching staff during the past season.

Herb Duggins, shown in the upper photo, end coach of the Bulldog grid machine and head basketball coach, who was a former football and basketball star at Purdue university, has been on the campus several years and is well liked by all who know him. In his spare moments he teaches in the physical education department, handles the intramural sports program and this spring is coaching track.

In the center is Mike Wells, popular line coach, who did most of the scouting for the football team, traveling from place to place to get the low-down on opponents. He is also tennis coach, teaches physical education and assists Coach Duggins with the intramural program.

Eddie "Doc" Wojecki, in the lower photo, head trainer for the Bulldogs, takes care of the aches and pains of the football, basketball and baseball players. As boxing coach, "Doc" ended a career of several years after the successful 1940 season. Boxing has been dropped from the athletic department's list of intercollegiate sports.

Following the revision of the coaching set-up, Wojecki was the only one of these three to be retained on the football staff.

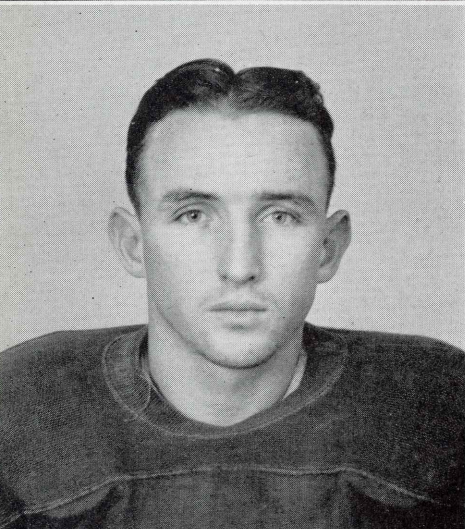

THE SEASON

WHEN the first whistle blew for fall practice, Coach Ray Davis faced the task of molding a team able to withstand a rigid eleven-game schedule, out of 24 sophomores and only 11 veterans. Despite this, local fans had high hopes for a successful season.

Although only four veterans were in the starting line-up, the Tech Bulldogs rolled up a 32-0 score against Arkansas A. & M. in the season's opener, September 15, on local turf. James Tinsley and James Barnett, sophomore halfbacks, scored two touchdowns each, while Sammy Gooch, sophomore end, chalked up another. Freddie Michael, sophomore quarterback, and Howard Barker, junior halfback, kicked an extra point each for the other Bulldogs' scoring.

The local squad passed their first crucial test of the season by knocking over Illinois Wesleyan, 12-7, September 22. Having broken even in two previous meetings, the two teams drew a capacity crowd to the Tech stadium. James Tinsley, halfback, and James Laughlin, sophomore end, scored Tech's touchdowns.

Inflating local supporters' hopes still higher, the Bulldogs ran up a 39-0 score on the Alabama State Teachers in the Techsters' third straight engagement at home, September 29. Ed Wendling, sophomore fullback, and Howard Barker, halfback, went across the goal line twice each for the Canines, while Ed Bryant, sophomore end, and Bill Hinkie, senior halfback, scored one touchdown each. Barker, Hinkie and Freddie Michael added three extra points.

Taking off on their first road trip, the Techsters met stubborn opposition in the Western Kentucky State Teachers at Bowling Green, Ky., October 7, allowing the Hilltoppers to score two touchdowns in the final quarter to win 20-7. Both teams were scoreless at the half and at the beginning of the fourth period the count was 7-7. Bill Hinkie scampered across for Tech's lone touchdown, Freddie Michael kicking the extra point.

On the road the following week, the Techmen were nosed out 7-6 by the Birmingham-Southern Panthers when the Alabama lads scored a touchdown and converted an extra point in the final quarter. James Tinsley threw a touchdown pass to Sammy Gooch in the first quarter to put the Techsters in the lead, but the fates were against them as the final score indicated.

Meeting an arch-rival, Louisiana State Normal, in the annual State Fair classic at Shreveport, Tech was completely overpowered, 26-0. The Demons, who completed their season undefeated, displayed too much scoring-punch for the Ruston lads. Lack of reserve power hampered the Bulldogs' attack.

Back on home soil for the first time since September 29, the Bulldogs halted a four-game losing streak by downing the University of Tampa Spartans, 13-0. Freddie Michael scored one touchdown and added an extra point while Jim Zoeller, another sophomore back, tallied the other goal-crossing.

IN REVIEW

Before a homecoming crowd of 5,000, the local Canines met their downstate cousins, the Southwestern Bulldogs, November 4, in the Tech stadium and battled the Lafayette squad to a 6-6 deadlock until the final seconds of the game when a Southwestern player picked an attempted Tech lateral out of the air and ran for a touchdown to give the Lafayette team a 12-6 victory. James Tinsley scored the lone Tech touchdown.

GORDON "DADDY" ADAMS, alternate captain

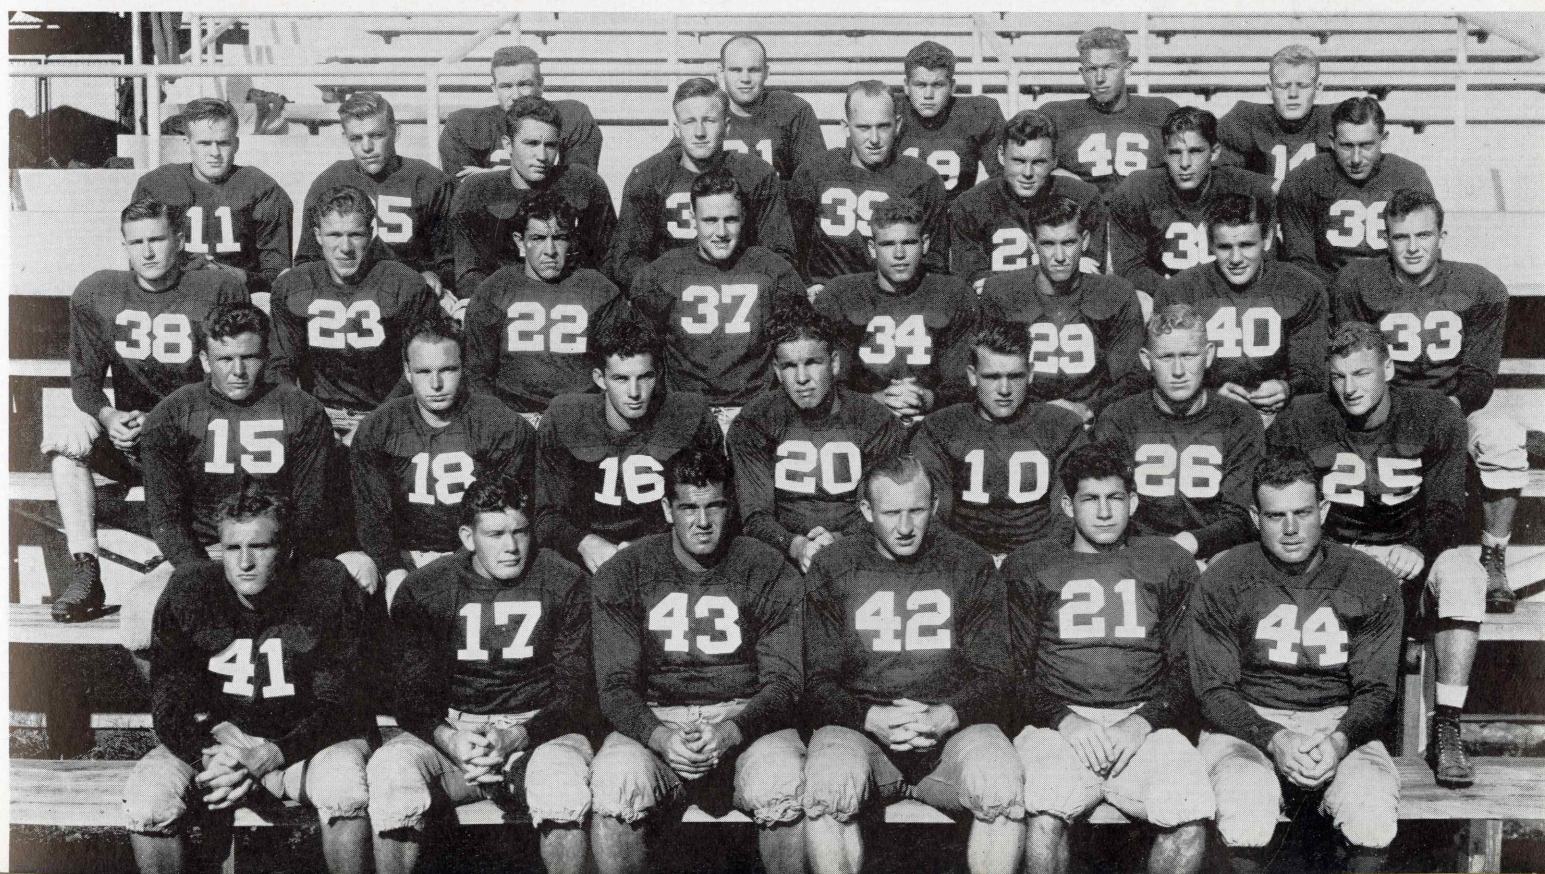

Spoiling Louisiana college's homecoming activities in Pineville, November 11, Freddie Michael kicked a field goal in the final minutes of play to give the Tech gridsters a 10-9 decision. In the second quarter, James Tinsley ran 80 yards for a touchdown and Michael converted the extra point.

Facing Texas College of Mines and its Ken Heineman, "Little All-American" backfield ace, out at El Paso, November 18, the Techmen were trounced, 27-0. Miles from home, the local grid-ders received plaudits from the fans for their determined playing right up to the final whistle. This marked the final road trip of the season for the Canines.

The annual Thanksgiving holiday game with Centenary brought down the curtain on Tech's gridiron activities for the year, November 24, the Gentlemen scoring a 19-0 win over the local team in a drizzling rain.

Becoming head coach of freshman athletics in the fall of 1934, Coach George "Blue" Hogg has consistently turned out outstanding teams in whatever sport he has coached. His freshman basketball team this year won the championship of the Ouachita Valley league, composed of various independent teams in this area. This spring Coach Hogg was assigned the task of tutoring the varsity baseball team, with only two members of the 1939 championship squad returning. At the time of this writing, he had led the K-9 to five wins, two defeats and one tie.

Although the freshmen footballers failed to win a game in their four starts last fall, the Bullpups came up with their usually well-drilled grid machine, founded in the fundamentals of the Notre Dame style of play as used at Louisiana Tech. Several of the outstanding members of the 1939 frosh are being counted on for berths on the varsity squad next year.

THE BOXING

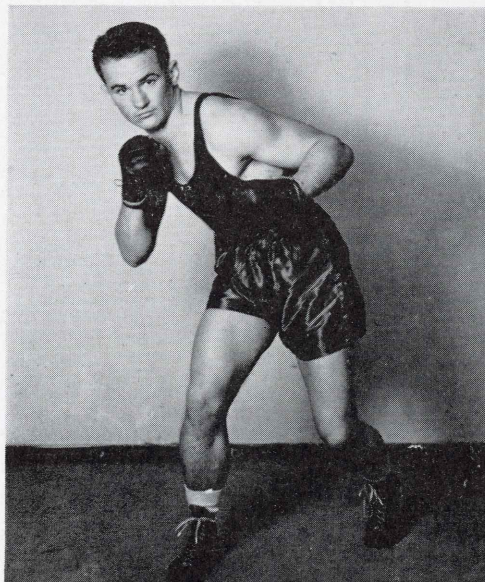

BEGINNING the 1940 season with a bright outlook, the Tech boxing squad seemed well on its way to a successful season but injuries and lack of candidates hampered its chances. As a result, Tech wound up the campaign with only two wins, two draws and three losses.

Joe Wojecki, a 1939 veteran, scored three wins and dropped two bouts, fighting in both 120- and 127-pound classes. Bobby Hand, undefeated in nine encounters before the 1940 season, won six decisions against one loss in both 120- and 127-pound divisions. Raymond Walton, a 135-pound newcomer to the mitt squad, won five bouts without a loss. Hugh Essary, another newcomer, won two and lost three at the 145- and 155-pound posts. Bill Maxwell, stepping into the ring for the first time, wound up the season with one draw and five losses in the 145- and 155-pound classes. Inexperience handicapped the Techsters. Dwaine Martin, fighting his second year with the Bulldogs, won three bouts, losing four, in the 165-pound slot. Rip Pipes, a veteran 175-pounder on the Tech team, piled up three victories, three losses and one draw before he discarded the mittens for the season. In only three instances did Tech have heavyweight representatives. Harry Widener won once in that weight while Edd Lee Roberts dropped two decisions as a heavy.

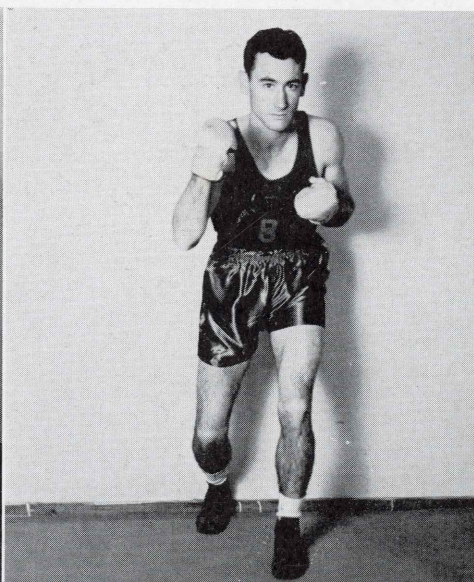

Arkansas Tech came to Ruston, January 25, with a squad sprinkled with Golden Glovers but left town on the short end of a 5½-2½ score. Wojecki, Hand, Pipes and Widener won by decisions while Walton won by a forfeit and Bill Maxwell drew. Pipes outpointed Ragan Kinney who captained the 1939 Golden Gloves team against Italy.

In one of the most startling upsets in 1940 ring history, Tech gave the Southwestern Bulldogs two bouts on forfeits and then trounced the visitors, 5-3, February 8. Previously, the downstaters had beaten Louisiana State university's Southeastern conference champs, Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Loyola.

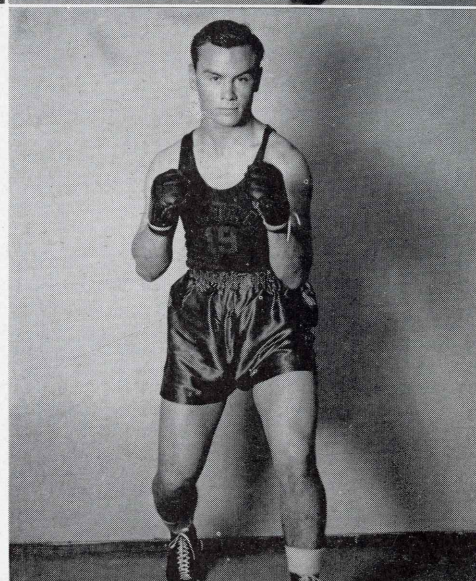

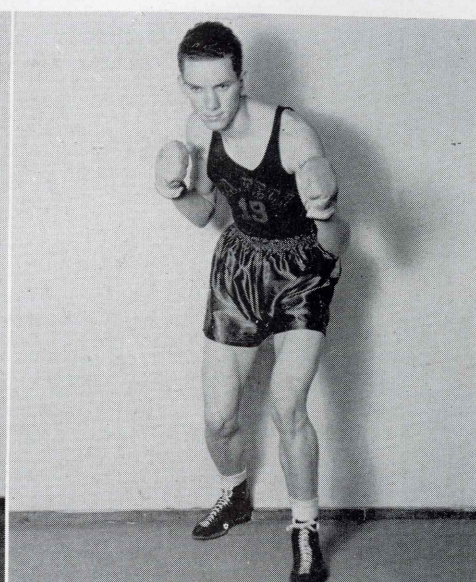

Wojecki, Hand and Martin won by decisions while Pipes scored a technical knockout when he opened a cut over his opponent's eye. Raymond Walton registered the outstanding victory of the night when he flattened Southwestern's favored Thurman Pardue in the second round. Tech forfeited both the 155-pound and heavyweight classes.

BOBBY HAND, 127 lbs.

Top: RAYMOND WALTON, 135 lbs.

SEASON---1940

Down at Lafayette in a return engagement, the locals were able to get only one win and a draw, dropping a 6½-1½ decision to Southwestern. Raymond Walton won his second straight technical knockout and Pipes drew in the 175-pound class. Tech forfeited the 120-, 145-pound and heavyweight divisions.

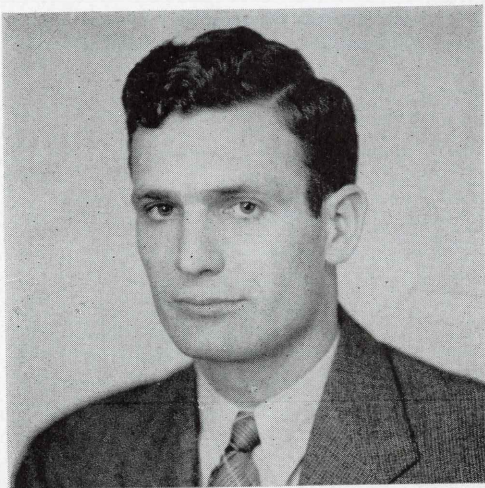

Enroute to Washington, D. C., and a bout for the second straight year with Columbus university's Explorers, the Techsters dropped a return match to Arkansas Tech, 3-5. Hand and Essary won decisions while Walton received a forfeit. Tech forfeited the 120-pound class as Wojecki was unable to make his weight. Pipes and Martin lost by knockouts and Edd Roberts, heavyweight, fighting his first bout for Tech, and Bill Maxwell, lost decisions.

By the same score as their first meeting, the Techsters drew with the Washington ringmen, 4-4, February 25. Bobby Hand was shifted down to the 120-pound post so Joe Wojecki, unable to make his usual weight, could do business in the 127-pound class. Wojecki, Hand and Essary won decisions while Walton scored a technical knockout over his opponent. In a confusing decision, Edd Roberts was announced loser by a knockout although he was standing on his feet waiting for word to "go in" when the referee raised his opponent's hand.

In their final home match of the season, March 7, the Techmen drew with Loyola, 4-4. Bobby Hand, again fighting in the 120-pound slot, won his thirteenth intercollegiate victory. Joe Wojecki, on duty in the 127-pound division, dropped a close bout to Sewelle Whitney, national intercollegiate champion. Dwaine Martin scored a knockout in the 165-pound class, while Rip Plpes won a technical knockout in the lighthouse bout. Walton won a decision to continue undefeated for 1940. The heavyweight bout was forfeited to Loyola.

Closing out the season, March 13, the Bulldogs lost to Loyola in New Orleans, 3-5. Hand and Walton won decisions while Martin scored his second straight knockout. Tech forfeited the heavyweight bout.

As the curtain was rung down on the 1940 campaign, Athletic Director Joe Aillet announced that Tech would not participate in intercollegiate boxing in 1941.

L. T. "Hawk" WHITTEN, captain.

BASKETBALL

Winning only four games (all from one opponent) within the Louisiana Intercollegiate conference and beating only one team outside the league in a 23-game schedule, Tech's basketball squad suffered its most disastrous season in years.

With four first-stringers back to begin the hardwood campaign, Coach Herb Duggins was encouraged. However, Charlie Carr, star forward, and Ralph O'Haver, aggressive guard, resigned from the squad, leaving their places to be filled by players who were seeing their first varsity service with the Canine hoopsters.

Opening the season in Nacogdoches, Tex., the Bulldogs dropped two straight to Stephen F. Austin's Lumberjacks, 41-66 and 37-48. Playing their first game on home soil, the Ruston quintet trounced Ouachita college's Tigers of Arkadelphia, Ark., 42-38, but Texas Christian's Horned Frogs turned on the heat in the final minutes of the second home contest to down the Bulldogs 39-32. The powerful Texas Tech Red Raiders were next home opponents of the Canines for two games and left Ruston on the long end of 44-23 and 30-28 scores.

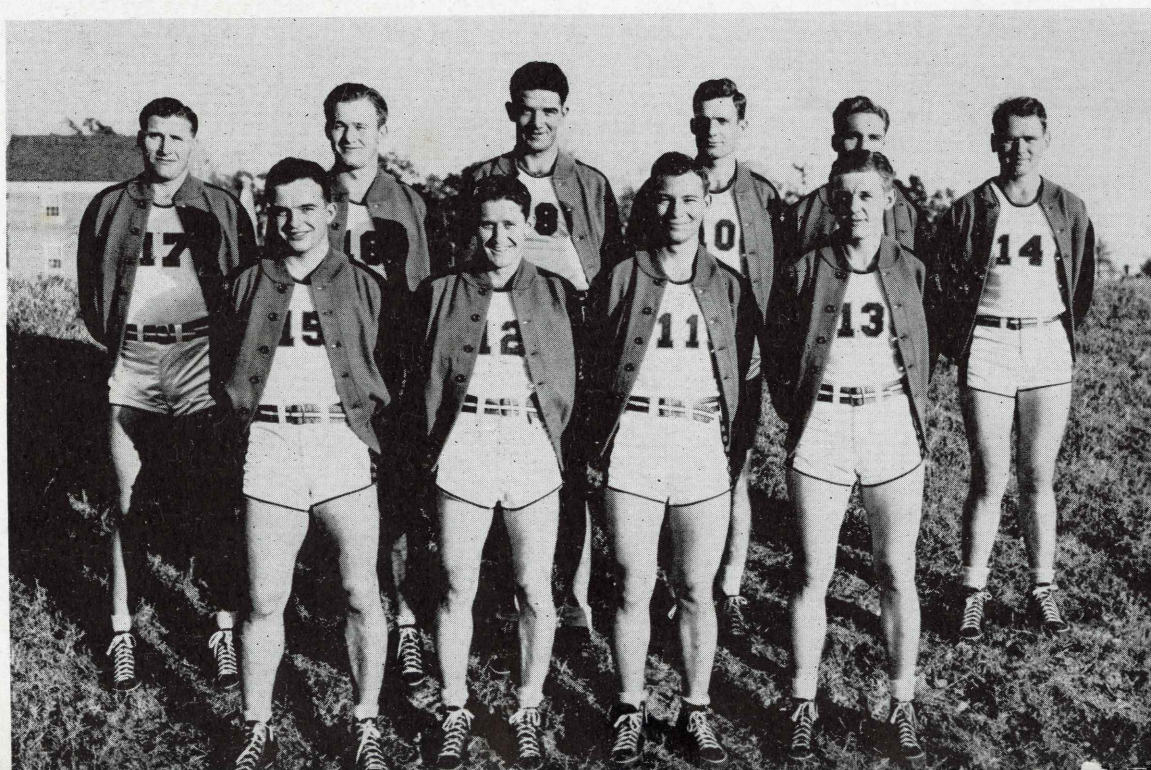

In their first game in the newly-organized Louisiana Intercollegiate conference, the Techmen romped over Louisiana college in Pineville 43-24. However, playing host to Normal's Demons in their next game, the local cagers lost 37-55. In their third conference tilt, the Bulldogs were defeated at Lafayette by Southwestern, 36-43.

In a return game with Louisiana college in Ruston, the Techsters scored an easy 46-27 victory. Louisiana Normal met the Bulldogs a few nights later in Natchitoches and continued their winning ways, dropping the locals 56-25. Back at Tech, in the third meeting of the two teams, the Demons again outscored the Canines 41-34.

Louisiana college lost to the locals for the third straight time at Pineville in the Techmen's next cage test, the score being 32-21. Centenary invaded Ruston a few nights later to open a four-game series with the Bulldogs, winning 56-44, despite a desperate last-minute rally by the home boys. Southwestern visited the local court next and dropped in enough tallies to hang up a 43-28 win. In Shreveport for their next game, Tech again lost to Centenary's Gentlemen, this time by a score of 38-45. Normal then inflicted the next wound in the locals' already injured pride by closing out their series for the season with a 67-44 lacing.

Determined to make a better showing, the Tech quintet played such a splendid game against Centenary in their next game that the gents were barely able to eke out a 42-41, victory, Tech holding a slight lead as the game went into the final few seconds of play. Playing their final game with the Wildcats of Louisiana college, the Techmen made it four straight by drubbing the downstaters 32-21 at home.

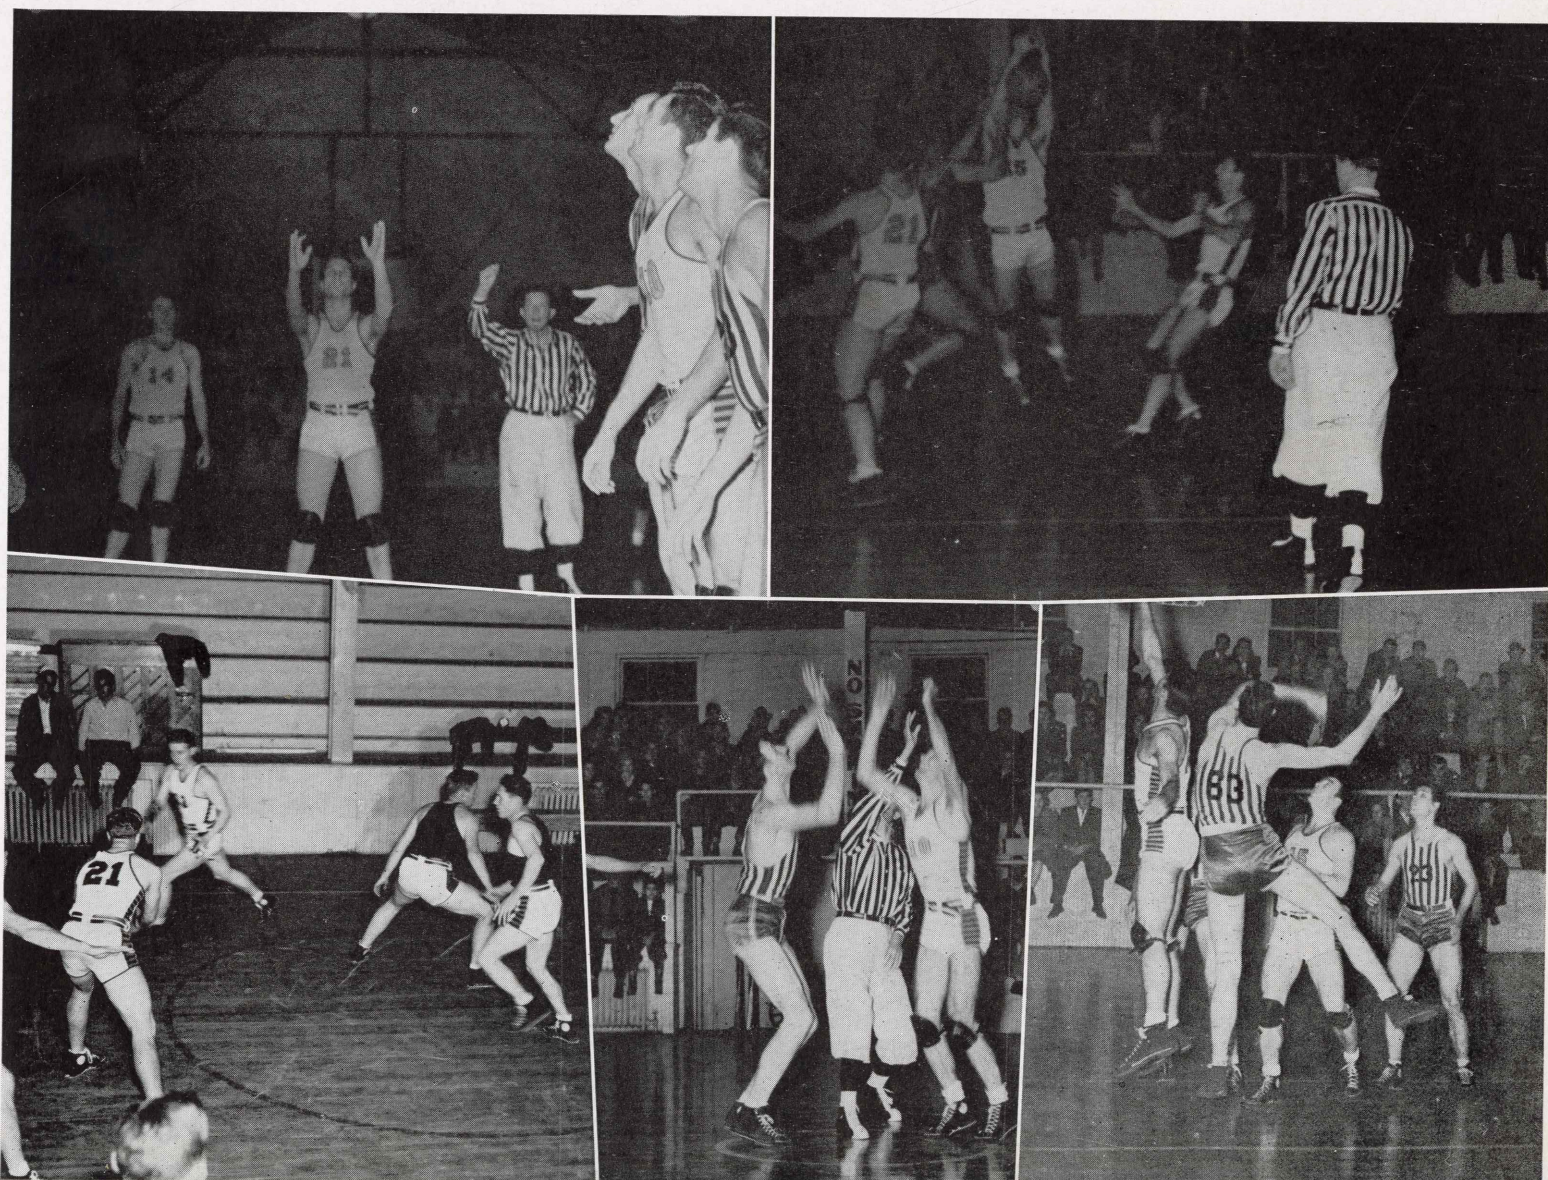

Southwestern won their third straight game over the locals at Ruston a few nights later, 48-34, and then played host at Lafayette long enough to inflict a 46-29 lacing. In the final game of the season, the Ruston boys put forth a mighty effort to win, but Centenary's machine-like club nosed them out 40-38, in Shreveport.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

By Gordon Allen

Scoring over 750 points, winning 17 games and losing but two and averaging 40.5 points per contest, Tech's freshman basketeers enjoyed one of the best cage seasons on record. Their record includes winning both halves of the Ouachita Valley league chase, three wins over the Centenary Junior Gents and an even break with Louisiana college's Kittens. A margin of three points separated victory from defeat.

A one-point loss to Louisiana college's frosh in Pineville and a 22-24 decision lost to the Ansley Independents early in the Ouachita Valley league campaign was the slight margin that separated the Tech first-year men from a perfect season, a record that is very seldom achieved in basketball.

Coach "Blue" Hogg's cagers have turned in the most outstanding record of any Tech team this year, and one of the players is almost certain to be wearing the Red and Blue on the varsity squad next season, according to Coach Hogg. He is Earl Baker, who holds some kind of a scoring record by zipping 286 points through the netting during the season, lead the Ouachita Valley League in scoring.

Besides Baker, who was chosen on the all-star team of the league at one of the forward posts, possibly the other most outstanding member of the squad was Joe Cavanaugh of Hornbeck, who was chosen one of the guards on the league's all-star aggregation.

Other outstanding players include Billy Cobb who teamed with Baker at the forward position, Gene Nunnally, tall center, and Elgin McFadden, running-mate with Cavanaugh at guard.

INFILDER

When the call was issued for 1940 baseball candidates, Coach George "Blue" Hogg was faced with rebuilding a championship team with only two veterans still on hand. Pat Meeks and "Lefty" Miller were the only players left that saw service with the 1939 team which scored 291 runs in 26 games and claimed the mythical S. I. A. A. championship.

Coach Hogg, who succeeded Ray Davis as baseball mentor after the latter had been dismissed at mid-term, decided to convert Meeks into a pitcher. To complete his mound staff, he chose Willard Penton, L. A. Hamilton, "Red" Shelby, James Tinsley, "Lefty" Miller, Tom Henderson and John Ed Barnes.

Back of the plate, he placed James Hendricks who had seen service with the undefeated 1939 freshman team. Harold Dickens was on hand to give aid if needed. Ora Merriott, a junior, won the first base job with Arthur Thigpen and George Rooney as alternates. Freddie Michael, another former member of the freshman squad, was assigned to second base with Robert James Lancaster on hand to replace him. Waldo Horn and Othel Payne, both sophomores, completed the infield at shortstop and third base, respectively. John Ed Rabun and Clem Byrd were kept handy in case of injury to the left side of the infield.

Dan Otts, a small sophomore with power between his shoulders, was put in left field while another Billy Hinton, a junior, roamed the center garden. Joe Walsh, another junior, was given the job of patrolling right field. Tinsley, Meeks and Tim Tyler were available for reserve outfield duty.

Opening the season in Ruston against the Iowa Hawkeyes, Big Ten champions of 1939, the locals dropped the initial contest of a three-game series, 7-10. However, the Bulldogs led in hits, 19-13. Meeks started the opening game but was replaced in the sixth by Earl Baker, freshman pitcher.

Although leading again in hits against the Hawkeyes, 10-8, the Techsters lost the second game, 4-7. James Tinsley and Frank Taylor, freshman hurler, were on the mound for Tech.

The third game of the Iowa series was called in the eleventh with the score tied, 2-2. Willard Penton performed for six innings in the third contest with Taylor and Baker finishing up.

against Northern Illinois State Teachers, winning, 7-2.

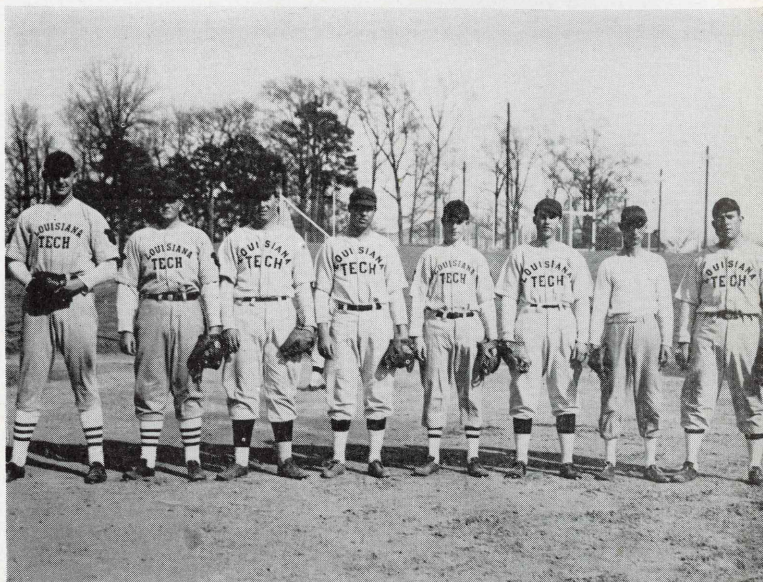

In the second game against the Illinois team, the Techsters scored heavily in the last three innings to win, 8-7. Freshman Eugene Nunnally started on the mound but was relieved early in the game by Robert James Lancaster. Lancaster had heretofore been used only as a utility infielder but showed much promise as a moundsman.

Opening S. I. A. A. play, the Techsters opened up a barrage of base hits to slaughter Millsaps, 17-5, on the Ruston diamond. Pat Meeks had little difficulty in scoring his first victory of the 1940 campaign. The second game of the series was rained out.

In the first game of the Louisiana Intercollegiate conference, the Techsters nosed out Southwestern, 7-6. James Tinsley went the full nine innings for the locals.

At the time of this writing, no other games had been played. Steady improvement was noticed, however, in the games already played and a very optimistic view was held by local supporters.

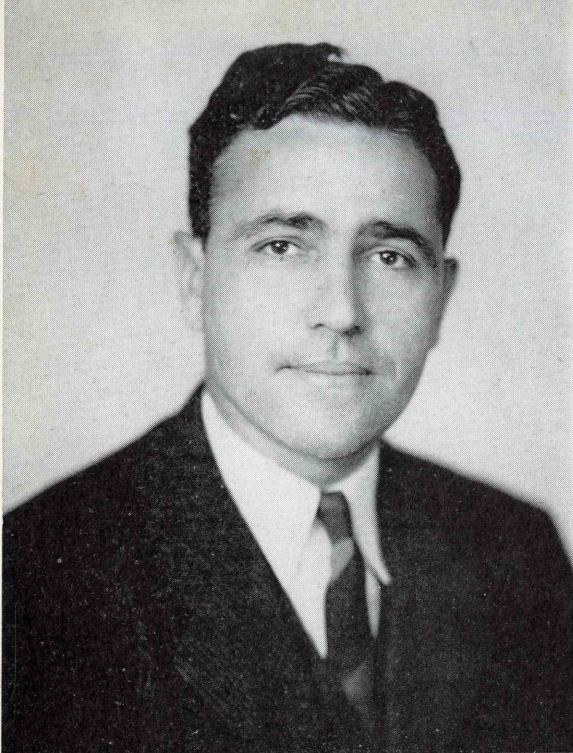

PITCHERS

Introducing Our New Coaching Staff

Following the 1939 football season, the personnel of the athletic department at Louisiana Tech was changed, with Joe Aillet, assistant coach at Louisiana State Normal, becoming athletic director and head football coach of the Bulldogs. Cecil Crowley, former Centenary college star and coach at the Male High school of Louisville, Ky., was signed as assistant football and head basketball mentor. Eddie "Doc" Wojecki was retained as head trainer for the Canines and George "Blue" Hogg remained in charge of freshman athletics. He is also coach of the varsity baseballers.

Closing out their spring practice session with a regulation intrasquad game, the Bulldogs show promise of developing into one of the outstanding teams in the state during the 1940 season. Overburdened with sophomores during the 1939 campaign, next year's pigskin-toters should have the experience necessary to carry them through a schedule which opens with Louisiana State university in Baton Rouge. Fresh blood coming up from the 1939 Bullpups will add to the chances of the team for a successful season.

WOMEN'S ATHL

"They fly through the air with the greatest of ease," these modernistic dancers being trained in the women's physical education department at Louisiana Tech.

A group of coed "Robin Hoods" gather around the target to argue who made the highest score. Archery is but one form of sports enjoyed by the coeds at Tech.

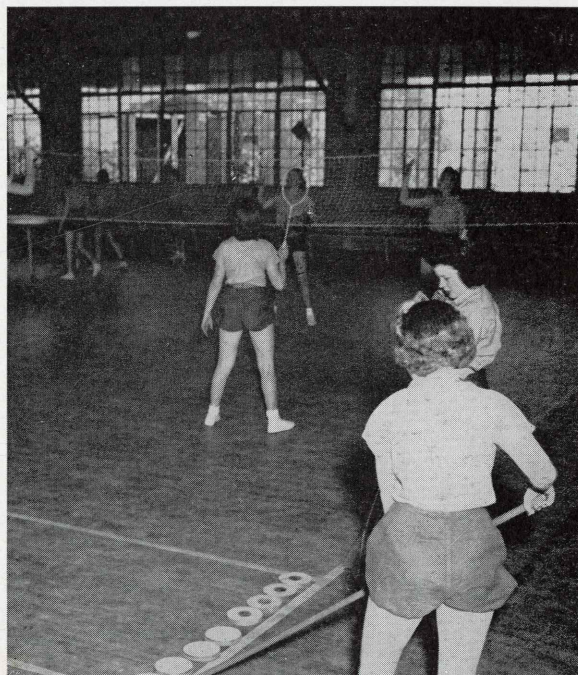

Shown at the left is a scene from the girls' intramural basketball tournament sponsored by the women's physical education department. Officials in charge believe in the slogan, "A sound mind in a sound body," and basketball is one form of recreation that leads in that direction.

ETICS AT TECH

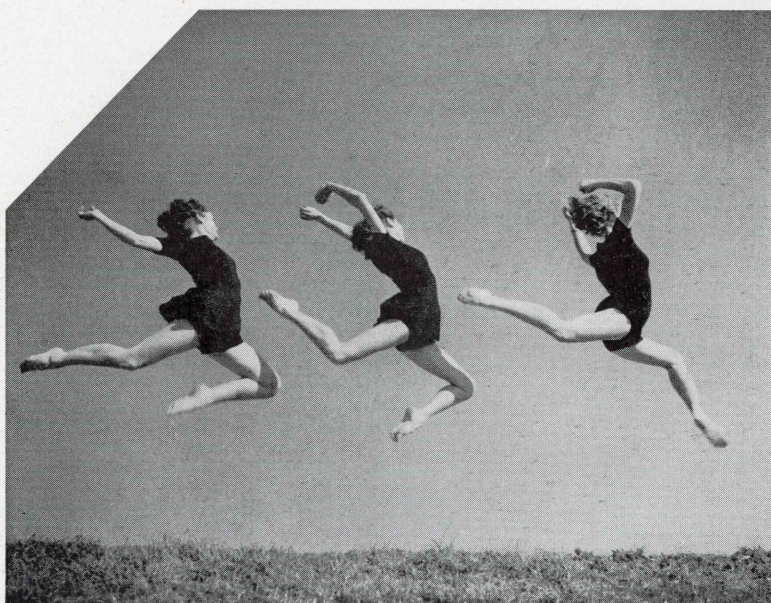

Modern "Robin Hood-ettes" take their aim on the firing line.

Badminton and shuffleboard occupy the minds of some of the women physical education students at Tech.

A trio of physical education majors practice modernistic dances, under the tutelage of the women's physical education department.

INTRAMURALS

The Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity's six-man football squad that captured the intramural championship for 1939. This was the first year that the athletic department sponsored six-man football.

Athletic-minded Techsters keep the new tennis courts busy during the early spring days. Without a tennis team last year, due to lack of facilities, tennis is staging a comeback on the campus this season.

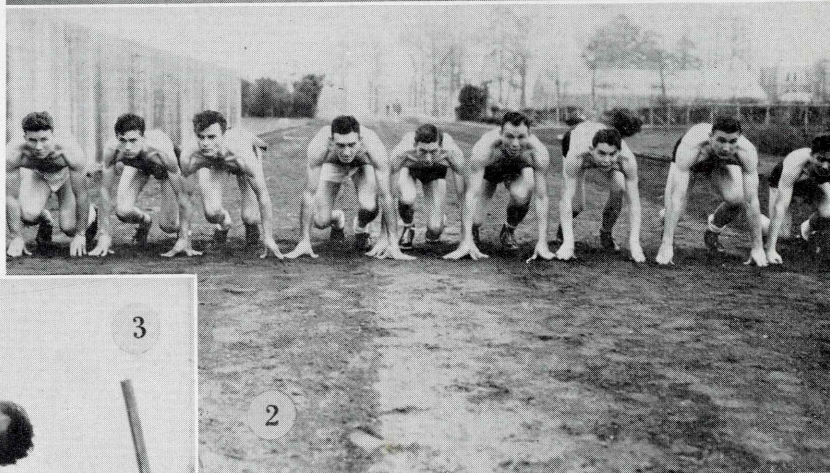

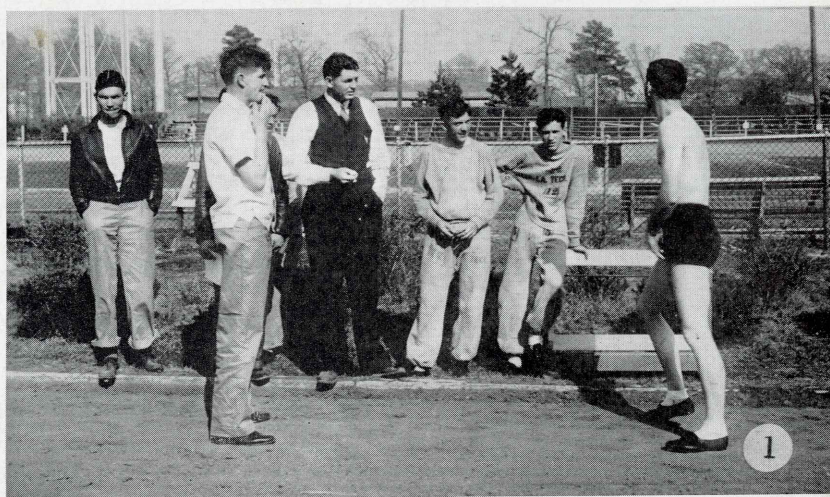

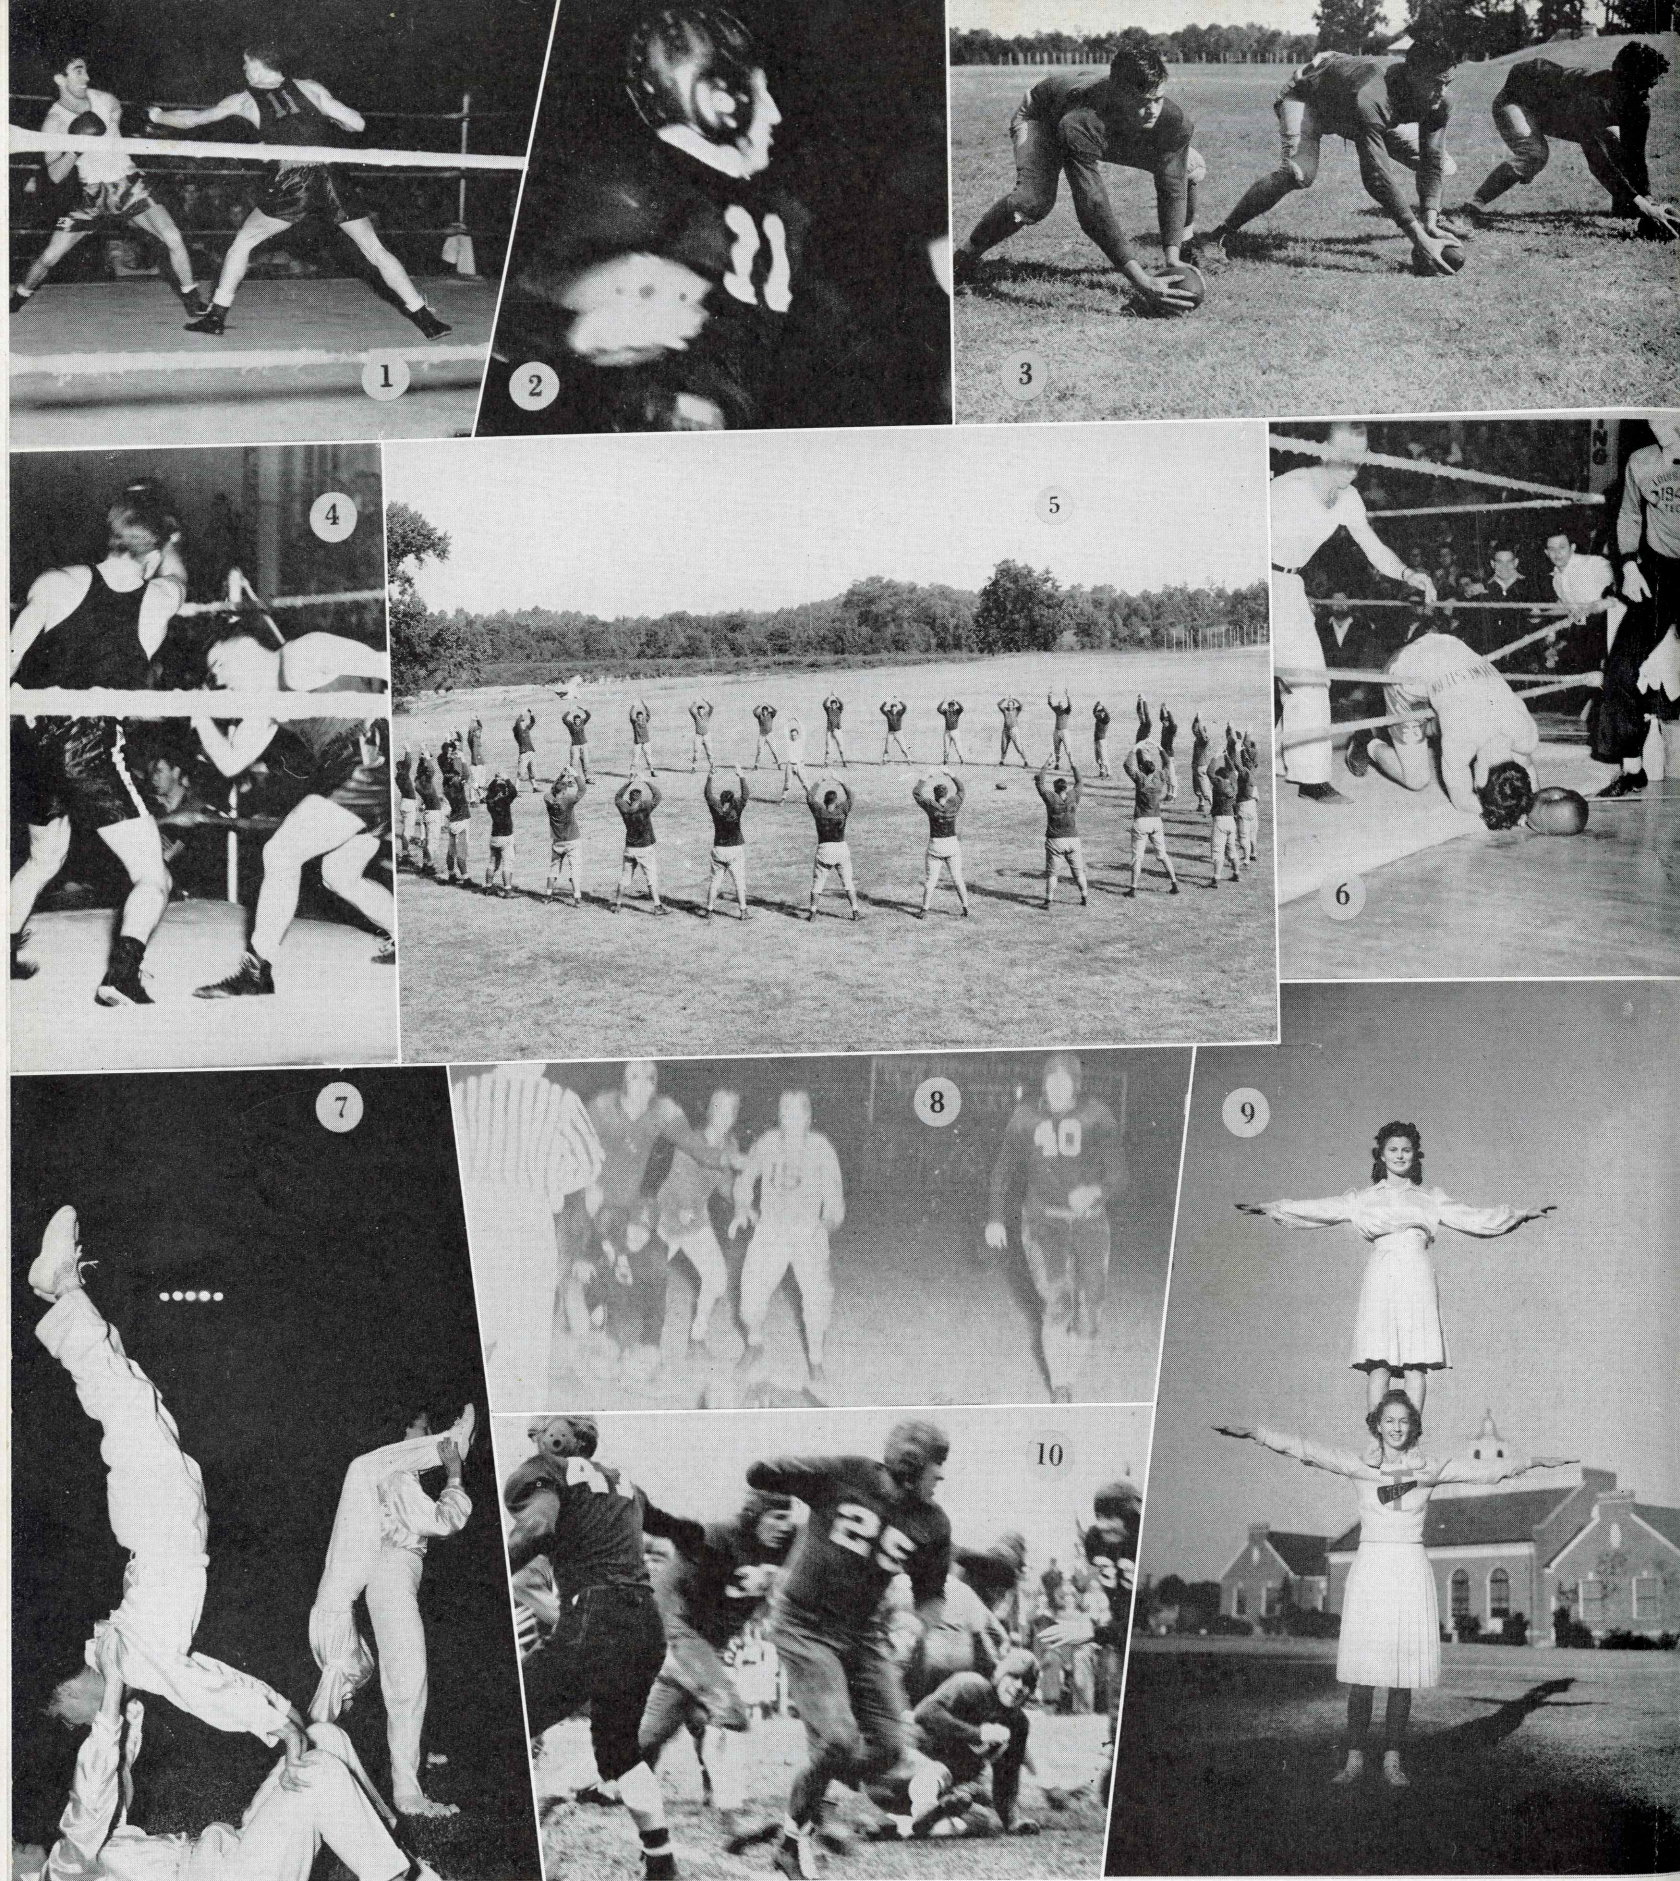

Lambda Chi Alpha's champions in action during the championship game.

TRACK

Track and field returned to Tech in 1940 after an absence of three years. Opening against Louisiana college's Wildcats in Pineville, the Bulldogs won their first of several meets scheduled.

1. Coach Duggins gives the boys a few fundamentals. 2. The sprinters toe the mark. 3. J. C. Phillipe soars over the crossbar with near-perfect form in the high jump event. 4. Jack Watson takes care of the pole vaulting situation in fine style. 5. Ray Nitter and Bill Nash hurl the javelin for the Bulldogs.

BETA SIGMA

Service Fraternity

Organized, April 24, 1939

"Dedicated to Service"

A BRIEF HISTORY

Beta Sigma, local service fraternity, was organized April 24, 1939, for the purpose of establishing on the campus of Louisiana Tech an organization whose chief aim would be to render service to the college and student body.

The fraternity is proud of its service record. Since its organization it has sponsored several worthwhile projects, the most outstanding being the fingerprinting campaign conducted on the campus March 28, 29 and 30 of this year.

The Delta Alpha Rho is an honorary engineering fraternity organized in the spring of 1928. Its purposes are many. Primarily the organization functions as a means of marking in a fitting way those students of engineering who are outstanding in scholastic attainment and qualities of leadership. United in the bonds of fraternal brotherhood, these students act to promote scholarship and engineering activities.

The outstanding contributions of Delta Alpha Rho to the School of Engineering are: The awarding of a slide-rule to the first semester freshman making the highest scholastic record each year, and the sponsoring of "The Tech Engineer," quarterly publication of the School of Engineering.

The Band

The Louisiana Tech Band performs publicly on an average of twice a week throughout the school year. It plays for all chapel programs and presents a series of concerts during the spring and summer terms. During the football season the band played for all home games and for three out-of-town games. Special effort was made to present an entirely new marching routine at each successive appearance.

The Lyre Club

The Lyre Club is composed of band members of at least one semester's standing. It was formed by those who wished additional opportunity to take part in ensemble music. This group plays for special programs when the band as a whole is unable to do so. It is taking its place among the social organizations of the campus sponsoring dances and such entertainment as the Centenary "Kollege Kapers."

The Tech Symphony Orchestra

The Tech Symphony, formerly under the direction of Miss Doris B. Haskell, now under the direction of LaVerne E. Irvine, has attained a high degree of success, and gained considerable recognition. It has done much to promote an appreciation in the higher fields of symphonic music. The musicianship of its personnel has reached a degree of precision unequalled heretofore, and as it continues to develop this organization will rank among the finest of college symphony orchestras.

The Tech Collegians, selected by competition among all students, have gained wide-spread popularity this year. This organization was designed with a three-fold purpose in mind: (1) to develop one of the most versatile groups in the state, specializing in both classical and swing music, (2) to furnish a service organization to function both on and off the campus, (3) to help students through college who can qualify.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Girls' Band

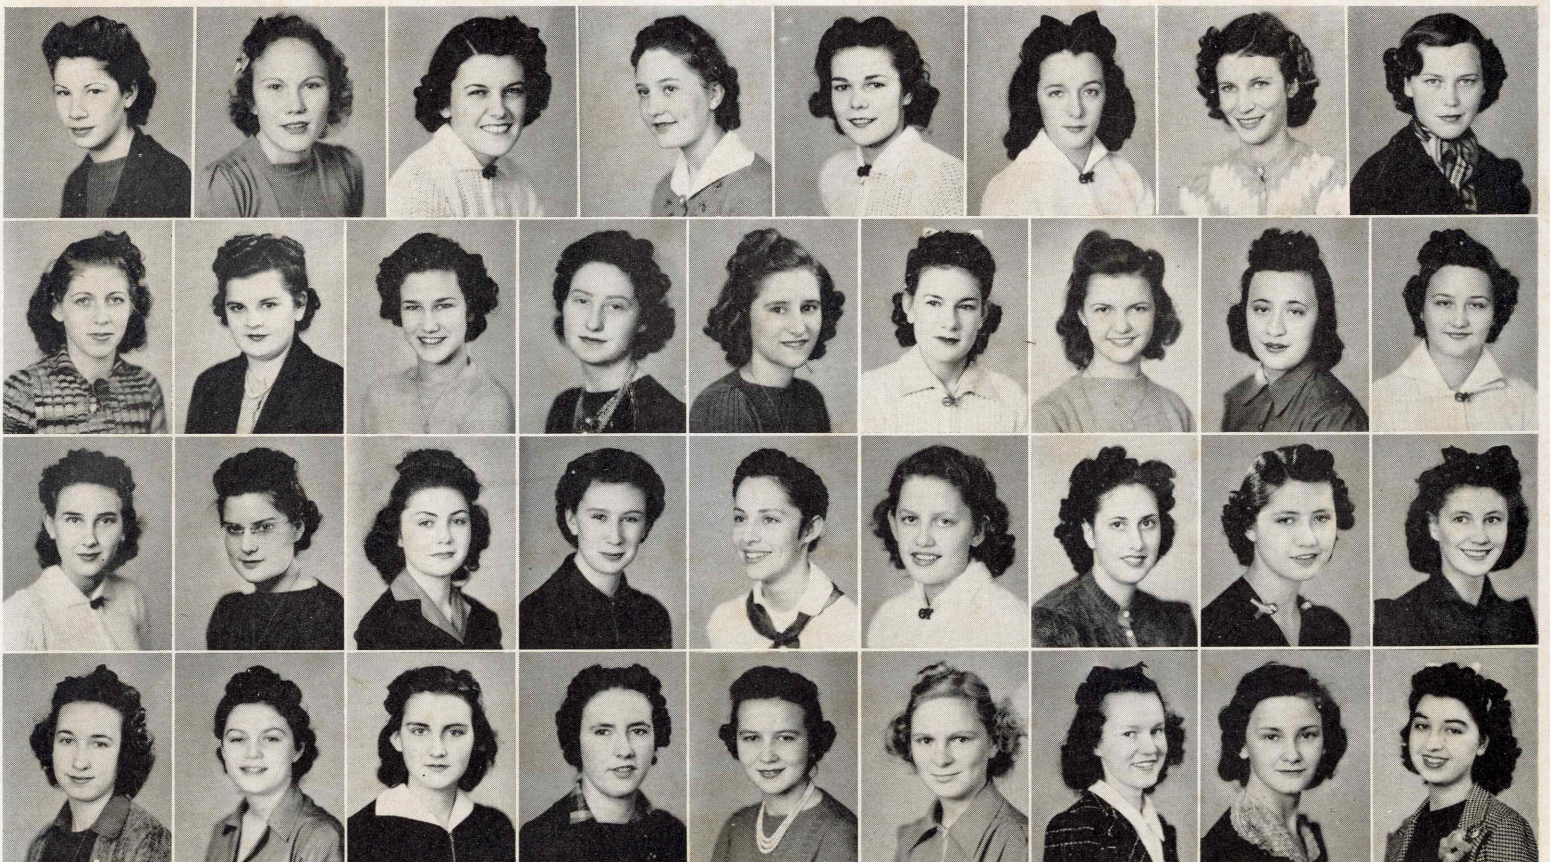

The Girls' Band has made excellent progress this year and is looking forward to a really great year in 1940-1941, when equipment and rehearsal quarters will be more conducive to progress. They are planning a much larger membership and several public appearances next year. Tech girls who can play an instrument will find this organization a very stimulating and worthwhile recreation.
